

Sunday 28 November 2021

Luke 4:14–19Leading
SpeakingDrew
William*Welcome*Song: King of kings, majestyConfession*Memory verse: Luke 4:18–19Kid's talk*Song: Light and a hammerMeet church family*Notices: kids leave (0–3s; crèche at the back, 4–14s; will be collected for Sunday School)Reading: Isaiah 61:1–11Reading: Luke 4:14–19Sermon*Song: His mercy is morePrayers*Song: O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer

NOTICESScan the QR code for the new 10am newsletter! bit.ly/10amnews1*Church family prayer: Monday 29 November, 6.30pm for 6.45pm, at St Helen's. If you can't join in person, join online (please identify yourself when you join to encourage an "in person" atmosphere). bit.ly/cfpNov2021 meeting ID: 834 8148 8369, passcode: 676017Investing in marriage: 9.30am–1pm Saturday 29 January 2022. William is speaking. Email Richard and Philly: marriage@st-helens.org.uk to sign up and to register childcare needs.Next Sunday: William will be speaking on Luke 4:20–30

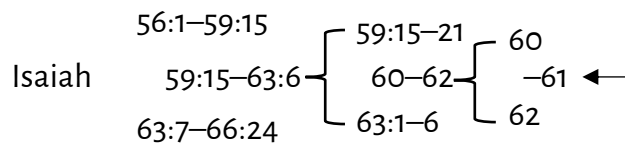

Christianity assured: firm foundations for the confident Christian

The anointed herald

Luke 4:14–19 (p 1036)

Introduction

1. Jesus is the person at the heart of this manifesto

2. Salvation is the purpose of the manifesto

Headline: good news to the poor

- Captives
- Blind
- Oppressed

Summary: the year of the Lord's favour

3. Proclamation is the work of this manifesto

Conclusion

Questions for discussion and reflection:

- How does Jesus' understanding of himself and his mission impact your understanding of Jesus?
- How does Jesus' analysis of humanity challenge our understanding of ourselves?
- Why do you think we so quickly shift from Jesus' 'method' in advancing his manifesto?